4.48.a

Words by Mother Emeritus

Graduation Song—

Dedicated to graduating class at Brunswick—1930

Music by Rev J. E. Roman

Allegro

Voices

Solo

A stream of life how fast you flow a-long your track less course
A student life too quick ly past as sun-beams fade a way—long your track less course, upon your banks not long a go— we loved to trace your sun beams fade a way — To night to night your flitting shadows cast ere dawns another day

Lor ret-to alma Mater fair Lor ret-to alma ma ter fair Life's stream relentless re lent-
Our college life our college glides while rests up on our lips a prayer a prayer for what the future hides o'er yet well recall in loving prayer the days that are no more —

1 A stream of life A stream of life A stream of life how fast you flow 2 — " " " " " " " "

3 bars Piano

faster

I
II
III 1st Chorus

A memories of yester years how fondly do you cling we live again our hopes and fears while we say farewell
A stream life we follow you to boundering ocean deep, with most of tears like evening dew in eyes that fain would

Lor retto Lor retto alma Mater fair Lor retto Lor retto alma Mater fair sung

weep

1 Sweet memories sweet memories of thee well cherish in the hour of prayer well cherish in the hour of 2 Be thou, be thou our guid — ing star ef-fulgent in the hour of prayer ef-fulgent in the hour of prayer where ever we may be where ever thy children are where ever thy children are

Piano

after 2nd Chorus add Coda

I
II
III

Lor ret-to Lor ret-to we our we our fare well fare well sung sung alma Mater fare well alma Mater fare well alma Mater fare well alma Mater fare thee well